GOLDEN IMAGE

START

Talk About It

The story

King Nebuchadnezzar built a giant golden image and commanded everyone to bow down to it. Three friends, Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego, would not bow to anyone but God. The angry king threw them into a furnace heated seven times hotter. But the king saw a fourth man walking in the fire with them, and they came out without even the smell of fire on them (Daniel 3).

For ages 6-9

1. How many men did the king see in the fire?
2. Why wouldn't the friends bow to the statue?
3. Is it easier to do the right thing alone or with friends?

For ages 10-14

1. The friends said God is able to save us, "but if not" they still would not bow (Daniel 3:18). What does that kind of faith look like?
2. What are some "golden images" people bow to today?
3. Who are friends who help you stand for what is right?

Family challenge

Make a "stand together" promise with two friends or family members: when one of you is pressured to do wrong, the others will help.

Prayer

God, give us courage to stand for you, even when everyone else bows. Thank you for being with us in the fire. In Jesus' name, amen.
