Talk About It

The story

Esther was an orphan girl raised by her cousin Mordecai, and God made her queen of Persia. When the evil Haman tricked the king into a law to destroy God's people, Mordecai told Esther she might be queen "for such a time as this." Esther and her people fasted and prayed. Then she bravely went to the king, he held out his golden sceptre, and God's people were saved (Esther 4-8).

For ages 6-9

1. Who raised Esther?
2. What did the king hold out to show Esther was welcome?
3. When is a time you could be brave to help someone?

For ages 10-14

1. Esther could have stayed quiet and safe. Why did she speak up?
2. Mordecai said Esther was there "for such a time as this." Where has God placed you for a reason?
3. God is never named in the book of Esther, but he is all through the story. Where do you see him?

Family challenge

This week, watch for someone being left out or treated unfairly. Be the one who speaks up or sits with them.

Prayer

God, you put us right where we are for a reason. Give us courage to speak up for others, like Esther did. In Jesus' name, amen.
