Talk About It

The story

In Revelation 12, John saw war in heaven. Michael and his angels fought the dragon, and he was cast down. He is called "the accuser of our brethren" because he tells lies about God's people. But God's people overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, Jesus, and by the word of their testimony. Lies lose their power when we stand in God's truth.

For ages 6-9

1. Who leads God's angels?
2. What does the Accuser tell?
3. What is one true thing God says about you?

For ages 10-14

1. What lies do kids sometimes believe about themselves?
2. How does Jesus (the Lamb) defeat the Accuser's lies?
3. Your "testimony" is your story of what God has done. What is part of your story?

Family challenge

Make a "truth wall": write true things God says about you (loved, chosen, never alone) on sticky notes and put them on a mirror.

Prayer

Father, when we hear lies, help us remember your truth. Thank you that Jesus has already won and that we are loved by you. In Jesus' name, amen.
